

'Vacation Varieties' Revue To Benefit Wilmington YW

Numerous Torrance tots to teens will be among 75 advanced student, whom Ruth Spere, dance instructor and choreographer, will present in a recital, "Vacation Varieties."

Matrons Mark Anniversary

Gardena Buddhist Matrons will celebrate their 10th anniversary on July 29 at the Gardena Buddhist Church at 6:30 p.m.

Ko Matsui is serving as general chairman and Toshie Yoshioka will give the welcome address. Iko Sonda will serve as mistress of ceremonies and Helen Ikejiri and Anna Nakacka are the social chairmen.

Other chairmen are Haru Hara, Bushi Shinohara; Yo Rita, and Grace Servo. Past presidents, who will be honored, are Kimi Ito, Ayako Nakatani, Sue Takayama, Haru Nakayama, Gladys Ikejiri, Suri Dycho, Terry Koyama, Alice Munesato, Kikue Isebe, Shira Fujita, Hazel Inamura, Alice Matsut, Marion Miyamoto, Nancy Nakayama, Yoshiko Kihara, Maru Igaski, Matsuye Rochiski, June Kamio, Toshi Tsukamoto and Ruby Iizuka.

Greet Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Don Kasten, 2080 W. 161st, Gardena, are announcing the birth of their first child, a daughter, on July 11 at the Little Company of Mary hospital. The baby, who weighed 8 lbs. 1 oz., has been named Karen Ellen.

Mrs. Kasten is the former Cathryn Rohrdanz. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Irwin O. Kasten of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. Dan G. Rohrdanz of Gardena.

Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tenneson, 2003 W. 180th Place, Torrance, celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary with a small dinner party for friends at the Three Lions Restaurant. Included in the gathering were Lee and Esther Scriven.

The 90-minute presentation will be given Sunday evening, July 30, at the Lakme Ave. and Denni St. clubhouse of the Wilmington Woman's Club. Curtain time will be 7:30 p.m.

The recital has a worthy cause back of it, as proceeds will benefit the Wilmington YWCA in its year-round program of Christian-based activities geared to current and changing interest of Wilmington women and girls.

"Varieties" part of the recital title will be exemplified in ballet, tap, interpretative, acrobatic and modern jazz dances.

As to the "vacation" half of the title, dances, vocal numbers and dramatic specialties, will be typical of countries which might be visited on an extensive vacation tour, including Hawaii, Tahiti, Spain, Italy, Egypt, France, Scotland, Ireland, and the United States.

America's dances will include "Gay Nineties" numbers, Charlestons reminiscent of the "Roaring Twenties" and oldtime and 1961 jazz.

One of the recital's highlights will be "Daguerreotype Days," in which Al Romaine, voice and drama teacher associated with Ruth Spere in her Torrance and Wilmington studios, will present a group of his pupils in these departments of the studios.

Rhythmical and musical "Vacation Varieties" will be enhanced by colorful costumes and special lighting.

Nominally priced tickets for adults and children may be obtained at the 1242 Avalon Blvd. Wilmington YWCA building Thursday through Saturday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., or at the clubhouse on "Vacation Varieties" night.

To serve as a welcoming committee and hostesses at the recital, to which the public is invited by Wilmington YWCA officials, are these chairmen in the organization: Mmes. Florence Peronia, administrative committee chairman; Muriel Christensen, Thrift Shop; Ethelyn (Peggy) Booth, ways and means; Marjery Mudgett, vice-chairman, and Iva Lapier, volunteer leadership.
